Bridge programs, variously named, include “summer before,” high school “catch-up,” college “reach-back,” and “adult learner” programs – all designed to help underrepresented, first generation, and otherwise challenged students improve their readiness for college.

Programs from Connecticut, and one from Queens, New York, will present their “best practices.”
A student panel representing these programs will share their insights.

Attendance limited to the first 75 people to register.
A fee of $95 includes light breakfast and lunch, and a registration binder with relevant information and the work of the presenting programs.
