

The Center for High Education Retention Excellence (CHERE)
and Goodwin College present

Building Partnerships for Recruiting, Retention & Resourcing College Programs for Underrepresented, First Generation, and Adult Education Students

WORKING SESSION
Friday, January 13, 1:00-3:00

at Goodwin College, East Hartford
SNOW DATE: January 20, 2017

At this session, we will work together to develop:

- Concrete strategies for recruiting underrepresented, first generation and other challenged students in higher education – both traditional age students and adult learners;
- Collaborative proposals for implementation across campuses to support the success and retention of these students;
- Creative approaches to provide resources for these programs in a time of limited funds and supports; and
- Ideas and suggestions for “Part II” Conference on “Embedded Support,” April 13, 2017, 9 AM – 3 PM - at ECSU in Willimantic

There is no charge for the January 13 working session.

For the April 13, 2017 Conference, registrants from 10/5/16 will pay a reduced registration fee of $50. New registrants will pay $75 if registered by 3/13/17, or $95 after 3/13/17.

Registration for April 13 now open. For more info, contact David Johnston at educationRwe@gmail.com or Alan Kramer at akramer@goodwin.edu

CENTER FOR HIGHER EDUCATION RETENTION EXCELLENCE

www.thechere.org

